CRUI-CARE: Flipped Journal Author workflow

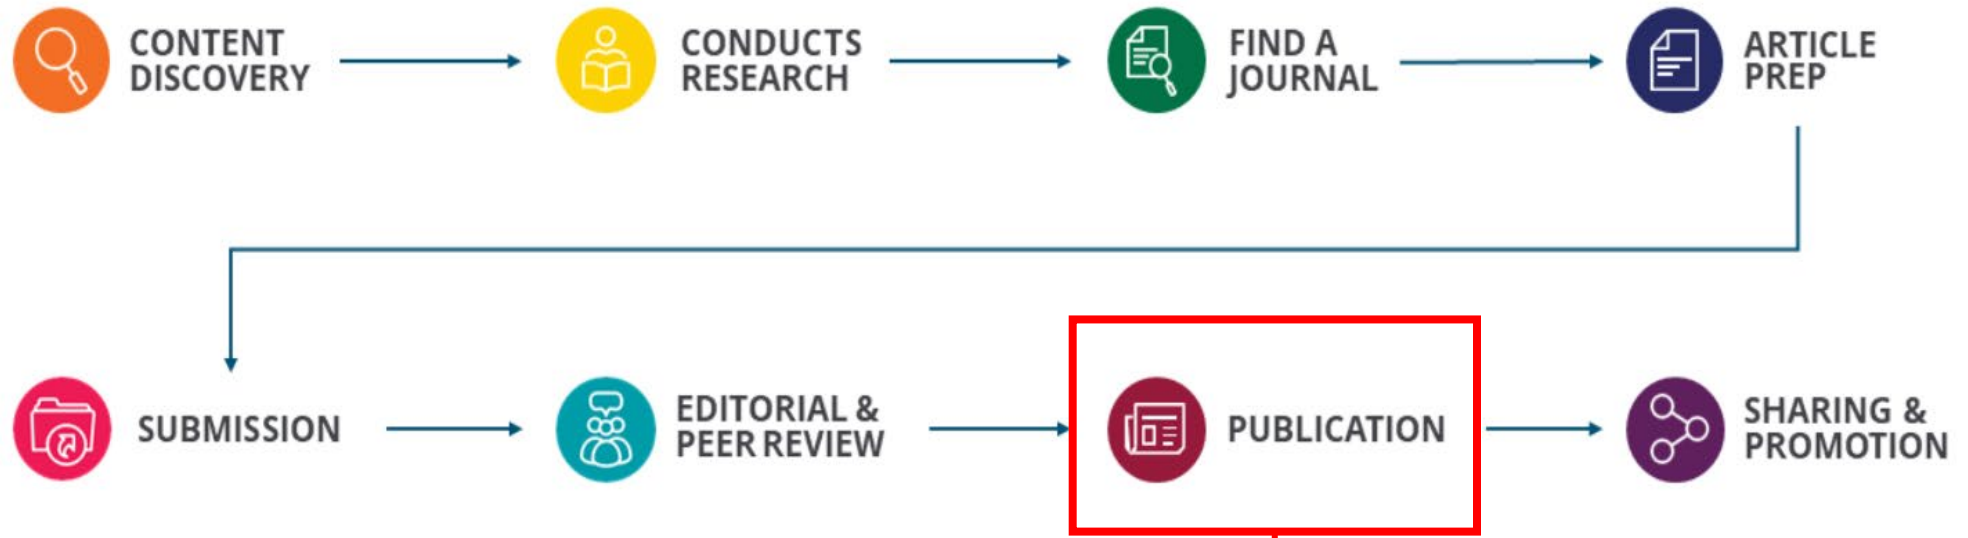

Cosa si intende per “flipped journal”?

Una rivista «migrata» è una rivista che originariamente era ibrida (consentendo agli autori di scegliere di pubblicare i propri manoscritti ad accesso completamente aperto o in abbonamento) che è diventata una rivista ad accesso completamente aperto.

In base all'accordo tra Wiley-CRUI, ci sono alcune riviste migrate da hybrid a fully gold in cui gli autori possono pubblicare ad accesso aperto senza costi aggiuntivi.

Hanno un flusso di lavoro speciale che esamineremo nelle prossime diapositive.
